

A Letter to the Membership:

2018 will be my 18th season as President of Quinte Sailability, 19 if you include the test year. We have grown from two Access Dinghies, one coach boat, a spot on the end of B dock and a storage locker for an office, 11 members, and one instructor.

I have enjoyed every minute--looked forward to the challenges and all the changes. I would like to thank every volunteer, staff member and sailing student; I have learned from you all and hope you can say the same of me. But, it is time to turn control over to a younger group whose energy and ideas will move the organization forward into the future. So 2018 will be my last season. A season to prepare the way for others to take over.

Steve Brown, VP of Operations, is heading up a Way Forward Committee that will ensure a smooth transition and plan the next 5 years. If you have ever thought you might like to get more involved in the organization, now would be an excellent time to let Steve know. You can email him at characterboat@gmail.com

I look forward to seeing everyone this summer and helping to make it your best season ever.
